

INEFFECTIVE VERSUS EFFECTIVE EMPLOYEE MANAGEMENT SKILLS AND THE BUSINESS IMPACT

★ Avoid difficult workplace issues

★ Have zero credibility and respect of staff

★ Make poor hiring decisions = hire the wrong employees time and time again

★ Address difficult employee situations with confidence – from basic tardiness issues to firing problem employees

★ Understand how to identify and fix employee morale issues

Ineffective Supervisors
Employee Management Skills

Successful Supervisors
Employee Management Skills

VS.

★ Aren't able to recognize when their employees are unhappy

★ Are afraid of firing problem employees

★ Have high employee turnover – especially of their best employees

★ Open the company up to legal problems from disgruntled current and former staff

★ Don't waste time and money hiring the wrong candidate time and time again.

★ Understands how to coach, mentor, and encourage employees and teams to do their best work

★ Have employees who are excited about working for them = higher productivity, less workplace drama

Visit www.HowToBeASupervisor.com to learn more

