

Hey HR!
People are your business.

It's more important than ever to attract, engage, and support the best talent.

65% of recruiters claim that talent shortage represents the biggest challenge in hiring.<sup>1</sup>

50% of candidates use their phones to apply for a job.<sup>1</sup>

87% of remote workers feel more connected to their teams when videoconferencing.<sup>2</sup>

Your HR team needs to be connected.

You want to streamline your recruitment process.

You strive to foster an engaged company culture.

You need to scale your HR organization, to make information accessible.

With Cisco Webex Teams, you can:

Support your people.

Drive more business value.

Use one tool to interview over HD video and send follow-up messages to make an offer faster.

Foster a culture of effective teamwork, where people can quickly share information and brainstorm over a whiteboard.

Create spaces for top HR topics of interest, to post updates and share files so information is always accessible.

Cisco Webex Teams offers one space to unite your teams.

Work with everyone.

All can be included in spaces and HD video meetings: coworkers, candidates, or external partners.

Increase engagement.
